

TITLE

The Dragon Healer

Scientific research and gaming

SYNOPSIS

This film is about a young researcher, Niya Schultzen, who experiences a strong dilemma while having a hard time combining his lifestyle and his dedication to helping humanity through his newly forming profession. Mysterious intervention, the nature of which we keep sorting out through the film, helps him connect with his deeper self and reestablish balance.

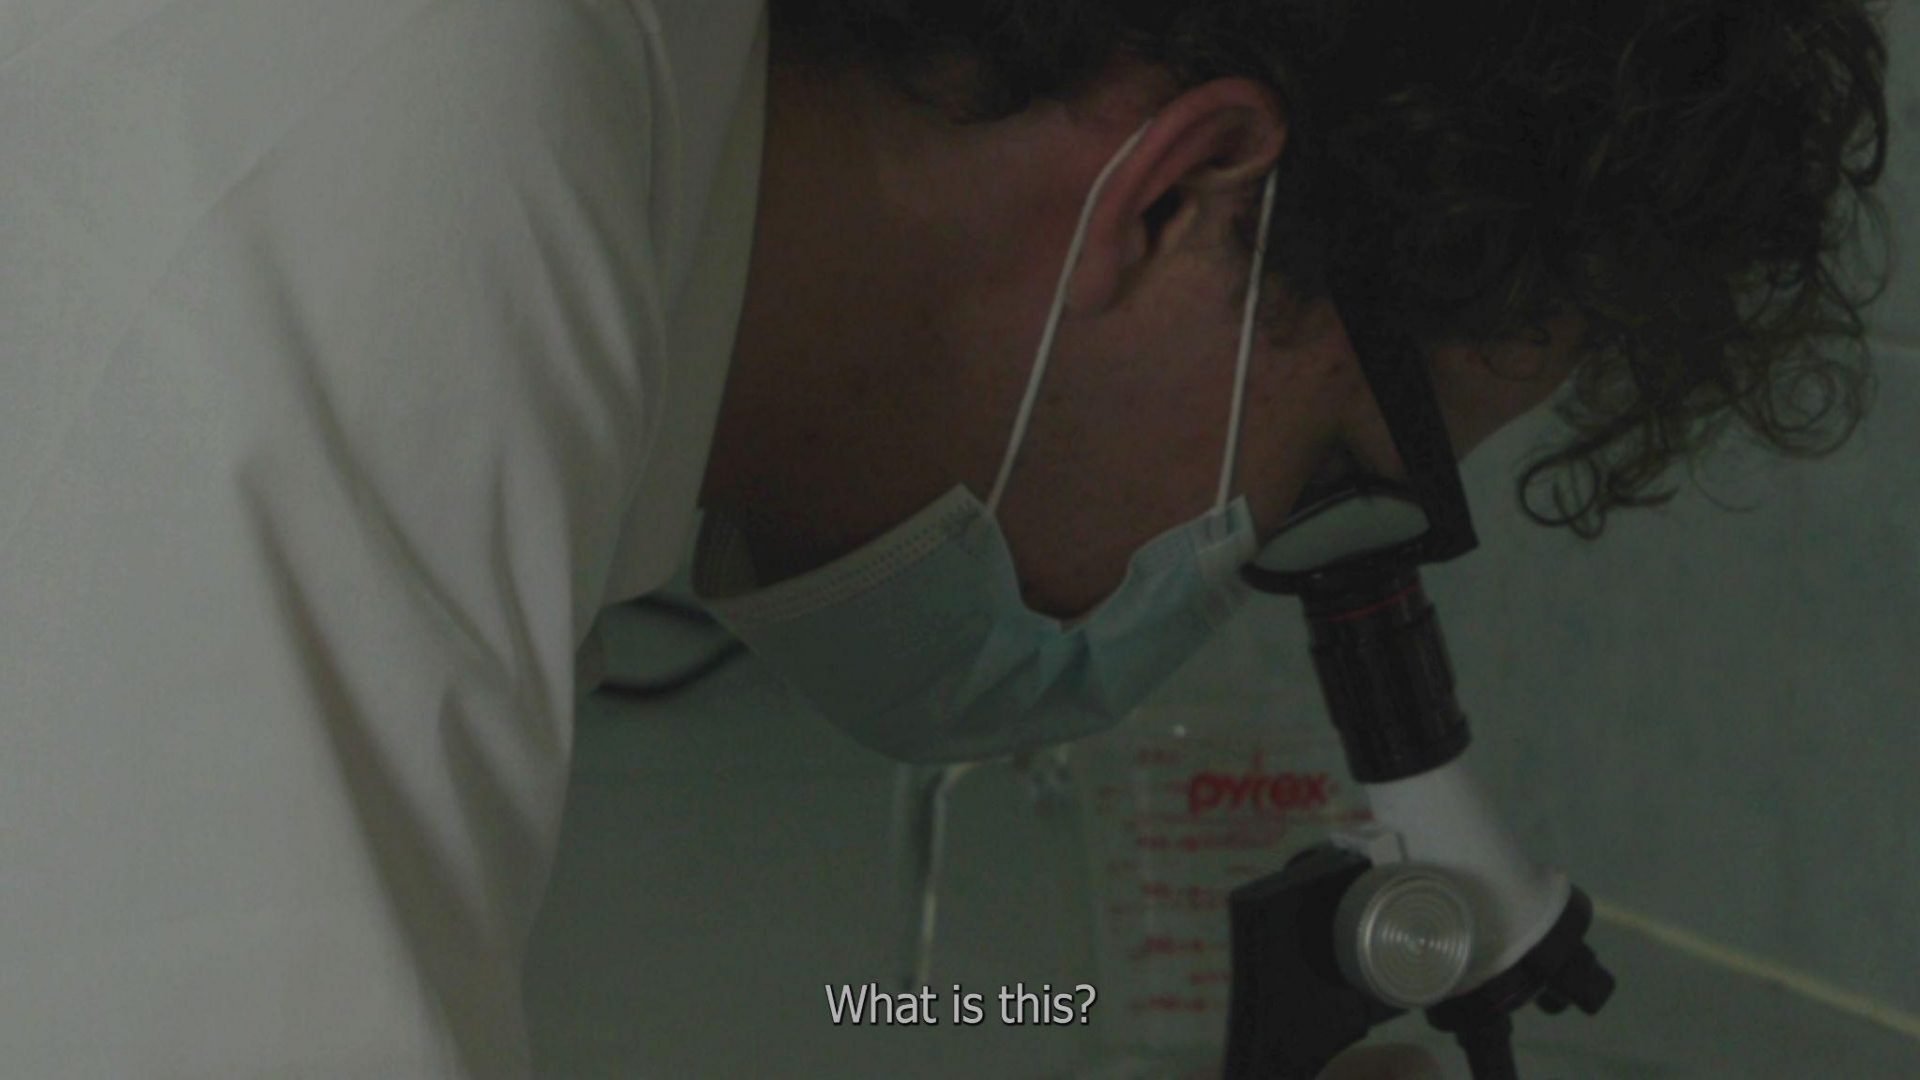

LOGLINE

What do a researcher and a gamer have in common? They are both after the unexpected...

No fucking way!

What is this?

DIRECTOR'S STATEMENT

This film demonstrates the thin line between imagination and power of faith. It invites the audience to let themselves meander through these paths while watching the hero engage in the same exploration.
